INTRODUCTION

You might be an EVANGELICAL if ...	You might be a PENTECOSTAL if ...

Definitions and explanation of terms:

EVANGELICAL	PENTECOSTAL
From the Greek word evangel , the gospel	Movement began at Azusa St in 1906
All about the Bible , “People of the Book”	All about the Spirit , “Day of Pentecost”
Characterized by study, teaching, theology	Characterized by tongues , other gifts of Spirit
Commonly says, “ God says in the Scriptures ”	Commonly says, “ The Spirit told me ”
First question: “What does the word say?”	First question: “What does the Spirit say?”

A disclaimer:

How this teaching came about:

- The Word and Power Church by Doug Banister
- Empowered Evangelicals by Rich Nathan and Ken Wilson
- Word. Spirit. Power. by R. T. Kendall, Charles Carrin, and Jack Taylor
- And through the writing, speaking, example, and influence of people like: C. Peter Wagner, John Wimber, John White, Jack Deere, Charles Kraft, Robert Heidler
